Disability Reframed: A Community Film Series presents a FREE screening of

The Institute of Contemporary Art/Boston
100 Northern Ave, Boston, MA 02210
Saturday, June 8th – 2 to 5 p.m.

"What's Eating Gilbert Grape is a movie that should be seen by anyone who wants to understand more about autism. It accurately shows what the everyday life struggles are for families with autistic members. It is frustrating, frightening, and stressful at times. There are points at which a caregiver feels trapped or exhausted. Ultimately, though, it is a bountifully rewarding and deeply exciting journey." from examiner.com

This is a scent-free event. Out of consideration for people with environmental illness and/or multiple chemical sensitivities, please refrain from using perfume or other scented products. For sign language interpreters or other accommodations, please contact the City of Boston Mayor's Commission for Persons with Disabilities by May 31st at 617-635-3682 (voice) or 617-635-2541 (TTY) or e-mail disability@cityofboston.gov.

Sponsored by:
Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities and the City of Boston Mayor's Commission for Persons with Disabilities

Join Disability Reframed: A Community Film Series on Facebook