RESOLUTION OF CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT MICHAEL P.
ROSS ON BEHALF OF THE BOSTON CITY COUNCIL

WHEREAS: Peter Gammons has been one of the nation's most esteemed sports journalists for over forty years and has been celebrated for his standards of excellence in writing and reporting, and

WHEREAS: Inspired by his passion for sports, enthusiasm for music, and devotion to community, Mr. Gammons and a circle of friends founded Hot Stove Cool Music, a bi-annual benefit concert in 2000, and

WHEREAS: Now firmly established as a tradition of Boston's entertainment scene, Hot Stove Cool Music has raised over $3.5 million for The Jimmy Fund and the Foundation To Be Named Later, which seeks to strengthen our city and enrich and inspire Boston's youth, and

WHEREAS: The newly established Peter Gammons Scholarship will expand educational opportunities for Boston Public School students, NOW THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED: On this Tenth Anniversary of Hot Stove Cool Music and in celebration of Mr. Gammon's leadership as journalist, musician and citizen, that January 9, 2010 be declared Peter Gammons Day in the City of Boston.
