RESOLUTION OF CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT
MICHAEL P. ROSS

WHEREAS: The Boston-Sderot Project was organized by the Russian-Jewish community of Massachusetts in 2007 and brought twenty children from the embattled Israeli city of Sderot for a respite from terrorist attacks; and

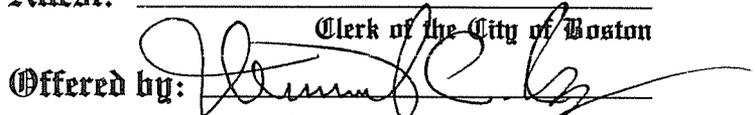

WHEREAS: Today, in partnership with the community, the group is able to sponsor summer camps in Israel for sixty children from Sderot; and

WHEREAS: The group has continued to grow and now sponsors year-round after-school programs for children focusing on arts, math and English and a community club for adults in Israel;
Now Therefore Be It

RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council does recognize the City of Sderot, its Mayor David Buskila and the Russian Jewish Community Foundation for their unique and momentous example of world-wide humanitarian leadership.
