Resolution Of Councillors
Stephen Murphy and Maureen Feeney

Whereas: The Boston City Council extends its congratulations to Superintendent Robert P. Dunford for his thirty-eight years of service to the Boston Police Department; and

Whereas: Bob has an amazing family with his wife Dottie, and their three children Sara, Brian, and Molly, who like him have dedicated their lives to making Boston a better place to live; and

Whereas: He has also been blessed with two grandchildren whom he spoils regularly; and

Whereas: He has served on many departments within the Boston Police Department, including the Bureau of Professional Development, the Bureau of Field Services, and the Democratic National Convention Security Planning Group, which was responsible for maintaining a safe environment for the many delegates who came to Boston; and

Whereas: Superintendent Dunford has been the recipient of many prestigious awards including the Boston Police Walter Scott Medal, and the Boston Police Medal of Honor, which is given to any member cited for extraordinary courage or bravery; and

Whereas: Bob's amazing leadership in establishing a more innovative approach to policing has made Boston a safer and more livable City. Through his efforts, many residents of the City of Boston feel empowered to improve the quality of life in their neighborhoods through the nationally recognized community policing program that Bob had introduced in Boston over a decade ago; Therefore Be it

Resolved: That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, does hereby wholeheartedly congratulate Superintendent Robert P Dunford for his many years of service to the Boston Police Department, and does mark this occasion with great celebration and respect for his efforts.
