

City of Boston IN CITY COUNCIL

Official Resolution of

City Councillors Maureen E. Feeney & Bill Linehan

Be it Resolved that the Boston City Council
Extends its Congratulations and Gratitude to:

Ms. Janet Stanley

In Recognition of:

Her tremendous work as a volunteer for Tom's Toy Party. Since its inception in 1997, Janet's blood, sweat and tears on behalf of the organization have helped to make Christmas that much brighter for over 6,000 children. Even before Tom's Toy Party, Janet was dedicating her time and effort to help children, as she founded and co-chaired the Public Facilities Department Intern Program from 1990 to 1996. The program was a great success and a launching pad for many youths who went on to have great achievements. Many of the interns would return to personally thank Janet, a testament to how the program positively influenced their lives. Janet truly represents the epitome of a selfless public servant, putting the good of others before her own interests. Therefore be it resolved that the City of Boston extends its warmest congratulations and gratitude to Janet, and declares January 5, 2009 "Janet Stanley Day" throughout the city of Boston.
