CITY COUNCIL

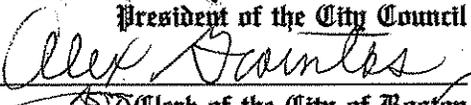

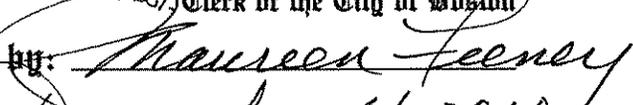

Resolution of
Councillor Maureen Feeney,

- Whereas: Today on December 4th, we gather to celebrate the upcoming 60th birthday of James Francis Gannon, proud resident of Field's Corner and son of Beatrice Ann Gannon and James Francis Gannon, both of South Boston; and
- Whereas: Jim spent most of his youth hanging out at the Town Field where he was an all-star third baseman for his Millstream team coached by Mr. Spillane, and eventually went on to join the rowing team at Boston Latin; and
- Whereas: He bounced around the country during his younger years, attending Ohio University, Northeastern University, Boston University, UMass Boston, and Babson University, before he finally decided to settle down in the Assessing Department; and
- Whereas: Jim was a faithful and caring son to his mother, Beatrice, during her final years – they would spend many hours watching Law and Order together and playing trivia where Bea would nearly always outsmart Jim; and
- Whereas: For all of Jim's life, he has been the foundation for his family and his friends who are thrilled to gather together today for his 60th birthday celebration; Therefore Be It;
- Resolved: That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled does hereby wholeheartedly congratulate Jim Gannon on six decades of good times, and wishes him good luck in any future endeavors, and declares December 15th, 2010 "Jim Gannon Day" throughout the City of Boston; and that this Resolution be duly signed by the President of the City Council and attested to and a copy thereof transmitted by the Clerk of the City of Boston.
