METROLIST

Affordable Unit
Announcements
(Lotteries)

MetroList is a free service to the current or former residents of Boston. MetroList is a walk-in program at Boston City Hall, room 966. In-person hours are 9AM-4PM, Monday to Friday (except for holidays). MetroList, also known as the Metropolitan Housing Opportunity Clearing Center, is a one-stop rental housing information center. MetroList provides information on apartment listings, open waitlists, market-rate listings, homeownership opportunities, and local services, as well as guidance to low-income tenants as how to apply for subsidized apartments. If you are not a Boston resident, or if you are seeking additional resources and housing opportunities, please review the information and websites below.

CHAPA has produced a booklet with information about searching for rental housing in Massachusetts for people who have one or more disabilities. Most of the information is also helpful to people who are low-income. To download a copy, visit: http://www.chapa.org/sites/default/files/HousingSearchGuide_2014_1.pdf

The Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) sponsors the development of affordable housing in the City of Boston under the Inclusionary Development Program. First, start here: <http://www.bostonredevelopmentauthority.org/housing/overview> and then you can go to the "currently marketed units" by navigating on the left side: <http://www.bostonredevelopmentauthority.org/housing/currently-marketed-units>. You can also sign up for notification e-mails from that page.

Please note that the BRA website generally does not list affordable units that are available due to vacancy. Note that some sites have waiting lists established for the affordable units and may or may not be distributing applications. You will have to contact each agent. Most agents re-market those as needed, and will often utilize internet sites like Boston.com or Craigslist, as well as traditional advertising methods.

The City of Boston's Department of Neighborhood Development (DND) has a resource list of local community development corporations and other organizations that may be able to assist you with housing search and development information, and more, especially if you are considering purchasing a home. <http://www.cityofboston.gov/dnd/bhc/default.asp>

You can find many rental opportunities advertised in the local neighborhood newspaper, the Metro, and/or the Baystate Banner. Some of these papers include their real estate ads on-line. For example, click on the real estate link in the left column of the Baystate Banner's website: <http://baystatebanner.com/>

CHAPA is a great resource for households with disabilities seeking units, as well as all households seeking affordable units. Their website lists homeownership and rental opportunities across Massachusetts. Go to <http://www.chapa.org/> and click on the "Looking for Housing" link on the top right. Homeownership opportunities can be found here: <http://www.chapa.org/looking-housing/affordable-homes>

You can also visit HUD's website for more information and opportunities: <http://portal.hud.gov/hudportal/HUD?src=/states/massachusetts/homeownership>
