

INSTITUTION NAME: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute					FINANCIAL YEAR:	FY 2011
Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners ⁵
1. Boston's Mammography Van	Launched as a joint venture between DFCI and the City of Boston in 2002, the DFCI Mammography Van provides digital screening mammograms and breast health education.	$652,000	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going.	Priority populations include women 40 years of age or older, who are low-income, elderly, immigrant, non-English speaking, and those of ethnic/racial and other minority backgrounds. Priority neighborhoods in Boston include Roxbury, Mattapan, Jamaica Plain, Dorchester, South End, and Fenway.	DFCI and City of Boston started this program ten years ago. We have continued to fund and operate it.	Area Boston community health centers, shelters, houses of worship, and other venues in Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan and Jamaica Plain.
2. Blum Family Resource Van	Provides prostate and skin cancer education and screening to medically underserved communities in and around Boston by travelling to underserved communities to provide information about cancer prevention and early detection. (since 2004)	$129,692	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	African American men are targeted for prostate education and screening. All Boston residents are served by the sun safety prevention program.	DFCI	Area Boston community health centers, shelters, beaches, houses of worship, and other venues in Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan and Jamaica Plain. Additionally, the Prostate Health Education Network (PHEN) is a key partner in the prostate programs.

INSTITUTION NAME: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute					FINANCIAL YEAR:	FY 2011
Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners ⁵
3. Patient Navigation Program	DFCI Patient Navigators function as members of a multi-disciplinary team to address cultural barriers of women and men at risk for, or diagnosed with, breast, cervical, colorectal and prostate cancer.	$192,944	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	Women and men from diverse backgrounds with low socio-economic status, limited English proficiency, disability status, or payment status (uninsured/underinsured) which may serve as a barrier to accessing health care.	DFCI	Brigham and Women's Hospital, Southern Jamaica Plain Health Center and Brookside Health Center, Prostate Health and Education Network (PHEN).
4. Whittier Street Health Center (WSHC):	DFCI and WHSC developed a new cancer control partnership to reduce cancer health disparities in Roxbury by increasing access to education, rapid diagnostic testing, treatment and care. DFCI leases space to run its onsite mammography services.	$386,500	Both (90% cash-10% In-Kind)	On-going	Women 40 years of age or older will have access to our on-site mammography services. All residents of Roxbury and surrounding neighborhoods will have access to all Dana-Farber programs and services.	DFCI and Whittier Street Health Center	Whittier Street Health Center and its network of CBO's and the Community Cancer Coalition.
5. Center for Community-Based Research	In partnership with community collaborators, DFCI conducts research aimed at cancer prevention and control, emphasizing development of interventions designed to reduce cancer risk.	$2,943,940	Both	On-going	Target include but are not limited to: overweight, low-income and minority populations with hypertension at three Boston community health centers, young women diagnosed with breast cancer, women ages 39-49, and Boston's Haitian Community among others.	DFCI	DFCI, BMA & Faith Based Network

INSTITUTION NAME: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute					FINANCIAL YEAR:	FY 2011
Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners ⁵
6. Community Outreach Initiatives	With the goal of reducing health disparities in cancer, community outreach at DFCI focuses on increasing awareness about the importance of cancer prevention, outreach, screening, early detection and clinical trials education. Examples of prevention programs are:	$474,953	Both (20% Cash-80% In-Kind)	On-going	See programs below for specific information	See programs below for specific information:	See programs below for specific information:
6a. Community Outreach Initiatives	United Way/Jimmy Fund Collaborative: Engage youth working for 4 youth serving agencies to take action for policy change or enforcement on a specific issue within one of two areas: (1) reducing minors' access to tobacco, or (2) increasing tobacco-free spaces (e.g. housing).			On-going	30 youth	United Way of Mass Bay and Merrimack Valley and Dana-Farber Cancer Institute	United Way of Mass Bay; Hyde Square Task Force; Inquilinos Boricuas en Accion; Boston YES; Sociedad Latina
6b. Community Outreach Initiatives	Open Doors to Health (ODH) is working with 8 housing developments located in Boston to educate residents living in low-income housing about breast, cervical and colorectal cancer prevention and early detection. Currently, there are 12 peer leaders working across the 6 housing communities			On-going	60% of the residents are African American, and 20% are Latinos.	DFCI and Boston Area Housing Developments	Designated housing developments in Boston.
6c. Community Outreach Initiatives	The Faith-Based Network: the faith-based cancer disparities network (FBCDN) represents nine congregations with over 12,000 congregants.			On-going	Reduce health disparities that exist in cancer care and treatment in the faith-based community with a special emphasis on Black church congregations.	Boston Black Ministerial Alliance and 9 area Boston Churches.	Boston Black Ministerial Alliance and 9 area Boston Churches.

INSTITUTION NAME: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute					FINANCIAL YEAR: FY 2011
Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners ⁵
7. Workforce Development and Community Programs	Dana-Farber partnered with YMCA Training Inc. and other community based pre-employment training programs to identify unemployed and underemployed skilled adults in the community. The experiences included a combination of on-the-job training and classroom learning, career counseling, and other skill building activities.	$347,000	Both (60% cash, 40% In-kind)	On-going	See programs below for specific information	YMCA Training Inc.	See programs below for specific information:
7a. Workforce Development and Community Programs	School Partnerships: DFCI works closely with the following schools: Fenway High School; Madison Park Technical Vocational High School – Allied Health and Human Services Academy; John D. O'Bryant School of Math & Science				City of Boston High School students and graduates	City of Boston & DFCI	Fenway High School; Madison Park Technical Vocational High School – Allied Health and Human Services Academy; John D. O'Bryant School of Math & Science

INSTITUTION NAME: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute					FINANCIAL YEAR: FY 2011
Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners ⁵
7b. Workforce Development and Community Programs	Summer Jobs: 61 Boston Public Schools students' and graduates from diverse backgrounds worked at DFCI in clinical, research, and administrative departments. In an effort to build the pipeline, thirty-five of the students returned from the previous year. During the 7-week summer program, students intern 30-hours/week, and participate in college tours and career readiness workshops. DFCI actively participates in school-to-career programs with the Boston Private Industry Council (PIC). One such program includes Groundhog Job Shadow Day, where students shadow DFCI employees learning about their job responsibilities, as well as the skills and training needed for their position.				City of Boston High School students and graduates	City of Boston & DFCI	Fenway High School; Madison Park Technical Vocational High School – Allied Health and Human Services Academy; John D. O'Bryant School of Math & Science. Boston Private Industry Council.

¹Does the institution's support for the program include a cash outlay, non-cash contributions (ex: use of property, equipment, supplies, etc), or a mixture of the two? If a mixture, please provide the approximate % of cash vs. in-kind.

²Is the program a one-time expenditure by the institution or is it part of multi-year commitment? If multi-year, please indicate the length of the commitment.

³Who is the target beneficiary of the program (ex: Boston youths with asthma)? Please be specific.

⁴Who started the program (i.e. institution, Mayor, Police Commissioner, School Superintendent, etc)? Please be specific.