Cambridge Public Library, Main Lecture Hall, 449 Broadway

Pre-screening reception 6:00 pm-6:30 pm

Directed by Sophie Sartain

66 minutes, Documentary in English with Open Captions

For the past 64 years, 92-year-old Mimi has cared for her daughter Dona, who has an intellectual disability. For Mimi, aging means facing the reality that she will not outlive her daughter. This personal and touching film by Executive Producer Nancy Spielberg (Above and Beyond) spotlights the challenges confronting aging caregivers of those with disabilities and details the ripple effects of Dona's disability on three generations of a Texas family.

Discussion to follow with Director Sophie Sartain and Susan Pacheco, Executive Director, Cambridge Council on Aging.

Free Admission.

This is a scent-free event. Out of consideration for people with environmental illness and/or multiple chemical sensitivity, please refrain from using perfume or other scented products.
