Tuesday, February 24, 2015, 6:00-8:30 pm

Cambridge Public Library, Main Lecture Hall, 449 Broadway

We are very pleased to be partnering with ReelAbilities Boston Film Festival again in 2015 for a free screening of Stand Clear of the Closing Doors. This award-winning film features Ricky, a 13-year-old boy with autism, who lives in Rockaway Beach with his family. His mother, Mariana, an undocumented immigrant from Mexico, works long days; Ricky, deeply imaginative but painfully isolated, struggles to cope. One day Mariana yells at Ricky for skipping school and, in a panic, he escapes into the New York City subway system. Overwhelmed by his surroundings, he loses track of space and time in the massive underground labyrinth, embarking on an odyssey of self-discovery.

Following the screening, there will be a lively discussion of the film facilitated by Goldie Eder, MSW, and featuring these panelists:

- Norma Casaya, Federation for Children with Special Needs
- Joe Foley, National Geographic Traveler of the Year; and
- Andy Novis, artist and endurance athlete.

This is a scent-free event. Out of consideration for people with environmental illness and/or multiple chemical sensitivity, please refrain from using perfume or other scented products. For sign language interpreters or other accommodations, please contact ReelAbilities Boston by February 1 at 617-244-9899 or e-mail: info@reelboston.org. Check out all of the 2015 Film Series info at: www.reelboston.org.
