

Disability Reframed: A Community Film Series

presents:

LIFE. SUPPORT. MUSIC.

a film by
Eric Daniel Metzgar

Saturday, October 27, 2012 -- 2 to 5 PM

Salvation Army Kroc Center, 650 Dudley Street, Dorchester

This 2008 documentary film by Eric Daniel Metzgar chronicles the story of renowned guitarist Jason Crigler, who sustained a major brain hemorrhage while performing onstage in New York City in 2004 and experienced a remarkable recovery with help from friends and family. Our guest hosts will be Jason and Dr. Chris Carter, Director of Behavioral Medicine at Spaulding Rehab Hospital.

This is a scent-free event. Out of consideration for people with environmental illness and/or multiple chemical sensitivity, please refrain from using perfume or other scented products. For sign language interpreters or other accommodations, please contact the Boston Commission for Persons with Disabilities by October 17 at 617-635-3682 (voice) or 617-635-2541 (TTY) or e-mail disability@cityofboston.gov.

Sponsored by the Salvation Army Kroc Center, Boston Commission for Persons with Disabilities and Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities

Join Disability Reframed: A Community Film Series on Facebook!

