DEAR FRIEND,

Welcome to Boston!

I am pleased to present the Mayor’s Office of New Bostonians’ Guide to City Services 2014 Edition. As New Bostonians, each of you has a unique story to tell. And each of you faces unique challenges. I want our city to be known as a place that helps you overcome these challenges. This guide will help you find the city resource or service that you may need.

Throughout the history of our city, newcomers have contributed immeasurably to the growth and vibrancy of the City of Boston. Today, as in the past, our city is made richer by the presence of immigrants. In order for our city to reach its full potential, we need to make sure that all of our residents have access to city services and resources.

Whether you have recently arrived in Boston or you have established residency for years, I hope you will find Boston to be a city that welcomes and embraces you, and to which you will give your best in return.

Sincerely,

Martin J. Walsh
Mayor of Boston
The Office of New Bostonians is an initiative to strengthen the ability of residents from diverse cultural and linguistic communities to fully participate in the economic, civic, social and cultural life of the city of Boston. You can call the Office of New Bostonians:

- To find out about City and Boston's community services that serve immigrants and refugees;
- If you or someone you know needs assistance accessing city government services;
- To inquire about MONB's free bimonthly immigration advice program;
- To find an ESL or citizenship class;
- To share concerns and problems that face immigrants and refugees in Boston today;

This Guide is a project of the Office of New Bostonians to assist all new Bostonians to access important services provided by the city government. The services are grouped by topic, such as Homeownership, Business, or Education. Under each topic you will find a list of services, and the phone number of the city agency that provides these services. If you would like to visit an agency in person, the agency locations are listed at the back of the guide.

We hope you will find this guide useful. If you do not speak English and you need help to access these city services, call the Office of New Bostonians 24 hours in advance at 617.635.2980 to arrange for an interpreter.

  rentalhousing@boston.gov

Sanitary Code Violations

Mayor’s 24-Hour Constituent Services 617.635.4500
Landlords are required to meet standards of safety and cleanliness. If your apartment is not sanitary, report the problem to the Mayor’s 24-Hour Constituent Services. They will contact a housing inspector to investigate the problem. Examples of sanitary code violations include:
- If there is no heat or hot water in your building;
- If there are rodents or insects in your apartment;
- If your water faucets are leaky.

Affordable Housing

Boston Housing Authority 617.988.3400
This is a public agency which provides affordable housing to low and moderate income individuals and families. Contact them to find out if you are eligible to apply for this housing.

Fair Housing Commission 617.635.4408
This commission works to eliminate discrimination and increase access to housing in Boston. Call them if:
- You need information about affordable housing in the Boston metropolitan area.
- You believe you are a victim of housing discrimination.
- You own or manage housing and want to list vacant apartments for rent.

Emergency Assistance

Emergency Shelter Commission
617.534.2710
Fax: 617.534.2719

Part of the Boston Public Health Commission
The Commission can help if:

- You are homeless and need a referral to services.
- You are in need of food.

HOMEOWNERSHIP

Boston Home Center
617.635.4663

The City's Home Center offers financial and technical assistance to people who would like to buy a home in Boston. Contact them if:

- You are looking for information on purchasing a home.
- You are a first-time homebuyer and would like to get subsidized or low-cost loans.
- You are a senior citizen who needs assistance in performing certain home repairs.
- You want information about holding a mortgage.

BUILDING & RENOVATION

Permits

Inspectional Services Department
617.635.5300

If you are building or renovating your home or business, you will need a building, plumbing or electrical permit. Call the City's Inspectional Services Department for help and information about permits.

The Home Center can help if you are building or renovating a home. Contact them if:

- You are a first-time home-buyer in need of financial assistance
• You are in need of guidance or funding for home improvements
• You would like counseling on how to avoid foreclosure of your home

Historical Districts

Boston Landmarks Commission  617.635.3850
(Located in the Environmental Department)
If you live in a Boston Historical district, you need permission to make exterior renovations to your home or business. For more information, call the Boston Landmarks Commission.

TAXES & TAXPAYING ASSISTANCE

The Assessing Department's Taxpayer Referral & Assistance Center ("TRAC")  617.635.4287
TRAC is a valuable resource for Boston taxpayers on property tax-related matters. The TRAC office is located on the City Hall mezzanine in Room M-5 and is open Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. TRAC can also be reached by phone at (617) 635-4287. TRAC staff can assist taxpayers with the following:
• You have questions about your CURRENT tax year real estate or personal property tax bill and/or bill payments (for prior year tax bill inquiries, contact the Collector's office at (617.635.4131);
• You moved and need to change your tax bill mailing address (for personal property tax bill changes, contact the Personal Property Unit at (617.635.1165);
• You want to obtain a copy of your CURRENT fiscal year tax bill;
• You want to know if you qualify for a property tax exemption under the following circumstances: you are elderly, blind, a surviving spouse, a minor child of deceased parent, a disabled veteran, or a member of the National Guard or Military Reserve serving overseas during the tax year;
• You want to know if you qualify for a Hardship exemption or a Tax Deferral;
• You want information about filing an abatement because you feel your property is overvalued, incorrectly classified or exempt from taxation (by law, abatements can only be filed after the 3rd quarter tax bill is issued and no later than February 1 of the tax year);
You want to know more about the Residential Exemption, which reduces the tax bill for those taxpayers who own and occupy their home as their principal residence as of January 1 preceding the tax year;

- You have questions about CURRENT Motor Vehicle Excise tax bills (for delinquent motor vehicle excise bills, please call (866. 432.3713);
- You own a boat that is moored in Boston and have questions about the Boat Excise tax.

SERVICES FOR FAMILIES

Boston Centers for Youth & Families (BCYF) 617.635.4920
BCYF is Boston's largest youth and human service agency with 35 facilities including 17 pools and one beach. BCYF community centers are "hubs of the neighborhoods" where Boston residents can access a wide array of programs, activities and services.

www.cityofboston.gov/bcyf

Childcare and Afterschool Programs

Many of Boston Centers for Youth & Families' community centers provide quality childcare for preschool and school-age children and BCYF also manages the City Hall Childcare Program. To find out more about pre-school and school-age childcare call 617.635.4920.

For more information about other affordable childcare providers, call Parents United for Child Care (617.426.8288), or ABCD's Childcare Choices of Boston (617.348.6272).

Nearly all of Boston Centers for Youth & Families' community centers offer a variety of after-school programs for school-age children. During school vacation weeks and summer vacation these programs increase their operating hours to accommodate working parents.

Summer

Boston Centers for Youth & Families serves thousands of youth each summer through enrolled summer camps and programs, and thousands more through drop-in programs, special events and activities. These opportunities allow children and youth to explore their interests and learn new activities and skills in hands-on and fun environments, and keep their minds and bodies active during the summer months so they are prepared for the return to school in the fall. Look for BCYF's Summer Guide online at www.cityofboston.gov/bcyf beginning each February.

Other Programs

Boston Centers for Youth & Families' operates Camp Joy for special needs children and adults. During the summer, Camp Joy operates as a daily camp for four weeks. During the winter, Camp Joy operates a Saturday program. For info on Camp Joy call 617.635.4920 x2402.
In addition, each community center has a youth worker who works with neighborhood young people on programs and activities. Many centers have newly renovated teen spaces and all BCYF centers offer yearly teen memberships for only $5.

Girls programming is a priority and in many centers you can find girls only programs and activities. For more information on teen or girls programming, call 617.635.4920.

BCYF Streetworkers work with at-risk youth to connect them with the services and assistance they need. To speak with a Streetworker, call 617.635.4920 x2241.
