

INSTITUTION NAME: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute					FINANCIAL YEAR:	FY 2012
Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both <sup>1</sup>	1-time or Ongoing <sup>2</sup>	Who is Served <sup>3</sup>	Program Initiator <sup>4</sup>	Partners <sup>5</sup>
1. Dana-Farber Mammography Van	Launched as a joint venture between DFCI and the City of Boston in 2002, the DFCI Mammography Van provides digital screening mammograms and breast health education.	$543,936	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going.	Priority populations include women 40 years of age or older, who are low-income, elderly, immigrant, non-English speaking, and those of ethnic/racial and other minority backgrounds. Priority neighborhoods in Boston include Roxbury, Mattapan, Jamaica Plain, Dorchester and the South End.	DFCI and City of Boston started this program over ten years ago. We have continued to fund and operate it.	Area Boston community health centers and other community based organizations in Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan and Jamaica Plain.
2. Blum Family Resource Van	Provides prostate and skin cancer education and screening to medically underserved communities in and around Boston by travelling to underserved communities to provide information about cancer prevention and early detection. (since 2004)	$132,147	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	African American men are targeted for prostate education and screening. All Boston residents are served by the sun safety prevention program.	DFCI	Area Boston community health centers, shelters, beaches, houses of worship, and other venues in Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan and Jamaica Plain. Additionally, the Prostate Health Education Network (PHEN) is a key partner in the prostate programs.