SuccessLink Youth Employment Program

July 5-August 12

Boston youth ages 15-18 can register online to be eligible for a summer job from February-March. Once registered, youth can apply to work at over 200 community-based organizations in a wide-range of positions ranging from camp counselors to community organizers, and artists to urban farmers. Each meaningful job experience provides youth the opportunity to learn from field experts while discovering new skills and a better understanding of the workforce they will encounter in the future. Youth employees also complete work readiness trainings including resume writing, effective communication, and interview skills, among others.

Youth Lead the Change: Participatory Budgeting

youthleadboston.org

May

The Youth Lead the Change initiative allows Boston's young people to decide how to spend $1 million of the city's capital budget. In May, youth ages 12-25 vote on which projects they want to be funded at polling locations across the city. Only those projects voted on by youth will be funded and implemented in the coming months.

MORE TO COME!
